

Recent theses and dissertation using specimen material or data from the University of Alaska Museum (UAM) bird collection:

- Wheeler, M. In progress. Genetic diversity of eagles. Ph.D. dissertation. Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, PA, USA.
- Oliveros, C. In progress. Diversification in Pachycephala in the Philippines. University of Kansas, Lawrence, KA.
- Cavazos, G. In progress. Phylogeography of Middle American Arremonops. M.S. Universidad Nacional Autónoma de Mexico.
- Coelho, M. In progress. Phylogeny of Pyriglena. Ph.D. dissertation. University of Missouri St. Louis. St. Louis, MO, USA.
- Delgadillo, J. C. C. In progress. Genetic diversity and population structure of the Worthen's Sparrow (Spizella wortheni). Ph.D. dissertation. University of Osnabrück, Germany.
- Haynes, T. In progress. Habitat modeling and diet of yellow-billed loons in the North Slope. Ph.D. dissertation. University of Alaska Fairbanks. Fairbanks, AK, USA.
- Paxton, K. In progress. The influence of connectivity on migration stopover strategies. Ph.D. dissertation. University of Southern Mississippi, Hattiesburg, MS, USA.
- Ralston, J. In progress. Population genetics of Blackpoll Warblers. Ph. D. dissertation. University at Albany (SUNY), New York State Museum.
- Wilson, L. E. In progress. Bird bone histology. Ph. D. dissertation. University of Colorado. Boulder, CO, USA.
- Wommack, E. In progress. Examination of a highly variable plumage trait in the sexually dichromatic American Kestrel (Falco sparverius). Ph. D. dissertation, University of California, Berkeley, CA, USA.
- Campbell, K. C. 2013. Evolution in a tropical archipelago: Comparisons within and among 50 species of Philippine birds. M.S. thesis. University of Alaska Fairbanks, AK, USA.
- Withrow, J. 2013. Population genetics of Pluvialis and Aegolius. M.S. thesis. University of Alaska Fairbanks. Fairbanks, AK, USA.

- Wilson, R. E. 2011. Speciation, subspecies divergence, and paraphyly in Cinnamon Teal and Blue-winged Teal. Ph.D. dissertation, University of Alaska Fairbanks. Fairbanks, AK, USA.
- Smyth, Jason. 2011 Evolution of geographic variation in continental and island Song Sparrows. Florida Institute of Technology.
- Bulgarella, M. 2010. Ecogeographic, adaptive, and phylogenetic variations in the Crested Duck (Lophonetta specularioides) and their hemoglobins in the Andes. Ph.D. dissertation, University of Alaska Fairbanks. Fairbanks, AK, USA.
- Burney, C. W. 2009. Comparative phylogeography of Neotropical birds. PhD dissertation, Louisiana State University.
- Valqui, T. 2009. Phylogeography of Nothoprocta tinamous and the phylogeny of the Tinamidae. PhD dissertation, Louisiana State University.
- Humphries, E. 2009. Patterns of genetic divergence among various Beringian birds. M.S. thesis, University of Alaska Fairbanks. Fairbanks, AK, USA.
- Krosby, M. 2009. Hybridization between Hermit and Townsend's Warblers. Ph.D. dissertation. University of Washington. Seattle, WA, USA.
- Moriarty, M. 2009. Arsenic uptake and arsenic speciation in terrestrial insectivores, herbivores and scavengers. M.S. thesis, Royal Military College, Kingston, ON.
- Guay, P.-J. 2008. Osteology of the Anseriformes. University of Melbourne.
- Lelevier, M. J. 2008. Phylogeography of three widespread Neotropical avian taxa: Rufous-tailed Hummingbird, White-breasted Wood-Wren, and Anthracothorax Mangos. M.S. thesis, University of Alaska Fairbanks. Fairbanks, AK, USA.
- Lemons, P. R. 2008. Parental investment strategies in black brant on the Yukon-Kuskokwim Delta, Alaska. Ph.D. dissertation. University of Nevada, NV, USA.
- Miller, M. J. 2008. Evolutionary ecological genetics of some Neotropical birds. Ph.D. dissertation, University of Alaska Fairbanks. Fairbanks, AK, USA.
- Pearce, J. M. 2008. Site fidelity: definition, measurement and implications for population structure using mark-recapture, genetic, and comparative data in the hooded, red-breasted, and common merganser. Ph.D. dissertation, University of Alaska Fairbanks. Fairbanks, AK, USA.

- Topp, C. A. 2008. Population genetics and systematics of selected landbirds from southeast Alaska and the Queen Charlotte Islands. M.S. thesis, University of Alaska Fairbanks. Fairbanks, AK, USA.
- Parchman, T. 2007. Patterns of genetic variation and coevolution in the diversification of crossbills. Ph.D. dissertation. New Mexico State University.
- Weir, J. 2007. Evolution of the latitudinal species diversity gradient of New World birds and mammals. Ph.D. dissertation, University of British Columbia, British Columbia, Canada.
- Farrell, L. 2006. Subspecies status of the western yellow-billed cuckoo (Cuculidae: Coccyzus americanus occidentalis): Using cytochrome b to elucidate the enigma. M.S. thesis. Lakehead University, ON, USA.
- Maley, J. M. 2006. A morphological and genetic investigation of the highest-latitude endemic passerine: McKay's Bunting. M.S. thesis, University of Alaska Fairbanks. Fairbanks, AK, USA.
- Shaw, D. 2006. Migrant bird stopover ecology and resident species loss in a fragmented tropical landscape, the Sierra de los Tuxtlas, Veracruz, Mexico. M.S. thesis, University of Alaska Fairbanks. Fairbanks, AK, USA.
- Sonthsagen, S. 2006. Population genetic structure and phylogeography of Common Eiders (Somateria mollissima). Ph.D. dissertation, University of Alaska Fairbanks. Fairbanks, AK, USA.
- Walsh, H. E. 2005. Polymorphisms and divergence among North Pacific albatrosses at multiple loci and application to species conservation. Ph.D. dissertation. University of Washington, WA, USA.
- Janssen, K. 2004. On the genetics, ecology and evolution of colour polymorphism: a study of the Arctic Skua (Stercorarius parasiticus). M. S. thesis, University of Tromso, Norway.

Others for which we have incomplete data:

Zac Cheviron, LSU.

Renee Ha, University of Washington. Population genetics of Corvus caurinus.
